

HW

Filmmaker

We are looking for a talented and enthusiastic filmmaker to join our production team here in our York office. Working on projects for both online and broadcast, for an eclectic mix of national and global brands, we constantly push ourselves to develop in every aspect of our work and strive to create films that innovate, push boundaries and last in a forever changing landscape.

Job responsibilities

Creating engaging films and expressing a creative flare for fresh, original and out of the box ideas. With your passion for filmmaking, you'll be able to both film and edit content for a range of video styles, independently and to client specifications, whilst also being able to produce your own concepts and create innovative ideas from scratch. You'll be happy to collaborate with our team and share ideas that can take projects to the next level.

Work to deadlines

Much of our work is completed under strict client deadlines. Candidates should thrive in this environment, working well under pressure without compromising on attention to detail.

Flexibility

Our team are often working on multiple projects at any given time. We are looking for someone that's happy to help and assist with edits in Premiere and other occasional office tasks when needed. We believe in building a multi-disciplinary team and are dedicated to reflect this within training opportunities where available.

If you're comfortable creating content that could take our video work to the next level. We want to hear from you.

Candidate requirements

Hands on post production experience – editing, grading, VFX and sound design.

Ability to shoot a range of projects on location or studio environments.

Strong understanding of, and ability to light a variety of sets/scenes to deliver specific moods/styles.

Experience in effectively communicating with clients at all levels.

5 years camera operation experience (a must) with Sony Fs7, Blackmagic, Alexa Mini (desired)

Ability to work as part of a multi-skilled team, developing ideas and integrating motion design to form seamless and engaging content.

Hours

37 hours / week (Flexible working considered)

Salary

28k - 35k Depending on experience

Working at H&W

We invest in our staff and help them develop their craft.

We strive for perfection here, but make sure we have plenty of fun along the way. If you're looking for somewhere to work collaboratively with like-minded creatives, you've found the right place.

How to apply

We want to see your latest creations, send us your showreel and links to complete work with an explanation of your role in the projects.

Send us a short video of yourself telling us who you are, what inspires you and why you want to be part of team H&W, so we can find out about the person behind the work and see more of your creative flair.

Please send these to studio@hewittandwalker.com

We work with globally recognized brands, businesses, and marketing agencies. We are a team of creative minds with a true care for our craft, working together to produce the highest level of content for our clients and their audience.
